Students observed cage system of poultry farming – layers .Single comb, white leghorn layers are rearing in the farm. 4 layers are kept in each cage. Cages are arranged in tiers in four sheds. Feed channel, egg receiving gutter and tap water system with nipple drinkers are provided. They got information about the management of rearing of layers like vaccines, deworming, debeaking, dubbing, egg laying capacity, culling, use of litter and excreta, marketing and economic importance. Matru Bhasha, or mother tongue, holds immense importance in various aspects of life and society. Here are several key reasons why the mother tongue is significant: Research indicates that children who are educated in their mother tongue during the early years of schooling tend to develop better cognitive skills. They are able to grasp concepts more easily and build a strong foundation for learning additional languages. Emotional Connection The mother tongue often carries emotional significance. It is the language of family, home, and community, which provides a sense of belonging and emotional security. Educational Success: Initial education in the mother tongue can lead to better academic performance. It enables students to understand and engage with the curriculum more effectively, resulting in higher literacy rates and educational achievements. Social Integration: A shared mother tongue fosters social cohesion and communication within a community. It facilitates better interaction and understanding among community members, strengthening social bonds. Preservation of Linguistic Diversity: Promoting and using the mother tongue helps preserve linguistic diversity. Each language carries unique expressions and ways of thinking, contributing to the richness of human communication and understanding. Economic Opportunities:

Proficiency in the mother tongue can enhance job opportunities within local communities and regions. It is also beneficial in sectors like education, media, and public administration where local language skills are essential. Personal Development Mastery of the mother tongue boosts self-esteem and confidence. It empowers individuals to express themselves clearly and effectively, contributing to personal growth and development.

Promoting and nurturing mother tongue education is essential for the holistic development of individuals and communities.

Outcome:

Students tend to perform better academically when instructed in their mother tongue, especially in the early years of education

Mother tongue plays a crucial role in preserving cultural heritage and identity.
